

The purpose of this document is to outline policies designed to ensure that the Isaiah 61 Mission House is a place to rest and recharge for those staying there as they work and serve Haiti.

It is a privilege to host your group and we hope you enjoy your stay!

House Rules

Keys: Upon arrival, keys will be issued. Keys must be returned prior to departure. There is a $25 fee per lost key.

Respect: Isaiah 61 guests are asked to respect others, including fellow guests and CCH staff. Please remember, the CCH staff has jobs to carry out for its ministry. If you need something, please speak with the CCH Country Director Rubinste St. Louis 3793-9514 or a member of the security team.

Safety and Security: As a developing country, Haiti is subject to random violence and/or demonstrations. The security situation can change rapidly. CCH works hard to minimize risks to Isaiah 61 guests by having 24-hour security at the guest house and established security guidelines by which guests must abide. Guests must also be mindful of safety and security precautions. They must never intentionally endanger others or create dangerous situations. Any security concerns or violations shall be reported immediately to the CCH Country Director and the CCH Executive Director. All CCH groups have a 10PM nightly curfew, which is recommended for all non-CCH groups as well.

Condition of Residence: For safety reasons no unauthorized guests are allowed inside Isaiah 61 House. Authorization of guests who are not part of an Isaiah 61 group is given by CCH's Country Director. Authorized guests will be allowed to accompany groups staying at Isaiah 61 House until the 10PM curfew. All others must remain outside the gates.

Meals: Meals are for paying guests only. Meals may be provided for authorized guests with advance reservations and prepayment is required. Meals cost $10/USD payable in cash to the CCH Country Director.

Provided Drinks: Purified water, juice, coffee and tea are provided for guests.

Purchased Drinks: Water bottles and Soda are $1 each. Beer (if available) is $2.50 each.

Alcohol: Moderate consumption of beer and wine is permitted for guests 21 years of age and older.

Smoking: Smoking is prohibited.

Questions: Any questions shall be directed to the CCH Country Director, Rubinste St. Louis 3793-9514. The CCH Executive Director shall have final authority over the house rules as determined by the CCH Board of Directors.

Noncompliance: All groups staying at Isaiah 61 are requested to follow the above guidelines. Refusal to adhere to guidelines may be cause for dismissal from the premises with no refund.
